The requests, together with the certification declaring ownership of the holding, should be presented in writing, by post or by e-mail, in compliance with any requirements strictly necessary for the identification of the requesting parties, as indicated by the company. Those with voting rights may individually present proposals to the Shareholders' Meeting. 4. The present article is applied also in the case of transfer of shares by power of attorney.

Art. 135-undecies (Designated Agent of the company with listed shares)

1. Except where the by-laws provide otherwise, companies with listed shares designate for each shareholders' meeting a party to which shareholders may confer, by the end of the second trading day before the date fixed for the shareholders' meeting, also in subsequent calling, a proxy with voting instructions on all or on a number of proposals on the agenda. Proxy conferred is valid only for the proposals on which voting instructions are provided.

4. The action may be taken within five years from the director leaving office.
5. The approval of a responsibility action results in the revocation of office of the director against whom it has been taken, based on the approval of at least one-fifth of the voting share capital. In this case, the Shareholders' Meeting replaces the directors.
6. The company may forego the exercise of the responsibility action and may settle the matter, as long as the revocation and the settlement have been approved by the shareholders' meeting and a minority of shareholders representing at least one-fifth of the share capital have not voted against such, or for companies utilising the risk capital market, of at least one-twentieth of the share capital, or a differing amount established by the by-laws for the exercise of the social responsibility action in accordance with paragraphs one and two of Article 2393 bis.
